

Growing Independence Through Routines and Play

Garretts Green Nursery School

What is this showcase about?

An approach to building children's independence, focusing on physical development. Staff training and strong parent engagement supported children to develop key skills such as toileting, dressing, eating and regulation.

Expect to see...

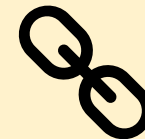

- The setting's story of how they implemented changes
- Examples of training given to staff
- Ideas for involving parents

Download

Story of Implementation

Website Link

Occupational Therapy Advice