

'Snack Mat' Choice Board

Woodgate Primary School

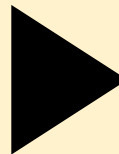

What is this showcase about?

Woodgate Primary School showcase how they use visual supports during snack time to encourage children to communicate their wants and needs in both their enhanced provision and mainstream classrooms.

Expect to see...

- A simple visual communication board embedded within an everyday routine
- Consistent use of symbols and visual supports to develop communication, confidence and independence

Watch

Video