

Combining visuals with text to support memory

Cotteridge Primary School

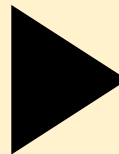

What is this showcase about?

Miss Waldron shares how symbols sit alongside words to aid understanding and memory. Symbols on displays, timetables and in books help learners recognise key vocabulary, follow routines and engage with adapted activities.

Expect to see...

- Discussion about pairing symbols with words to aid understanding and participation
- Visuals used with subject-specific vocabulary so pupils connect words to meaning

Watch

Video Explainer