Now and Next Boards

Penns Primary School

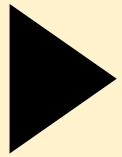

What is this showcase about?

Now and Next boards are visual tools that use pictures, symbols, or object. Carly Bone, a teaching assistant at Penns Primary School demonstrates how they use now and next boards as a visual support.

Expect to see...

- A way to show a child what activity they are doing currently ("now") and what will happen immediately afterward ("next")
- A way to provide structure and predictability to a person's day
